Who did we think we were kidding?

Gobstyks Presented a Warhammer 40,000 Tournament on May 10th-11th entitled Who Do You Think You Are Kidding Mr Horus at Games Workshop's HQ In Lenton. 6 Teams of 5 took Part in the two day campaign containing 5 games Gobstyks entered a team into the event who were, Team Captain Andy Dodd (Orks), Andy Thompson (Space Marines), Alex Ashworth (Dark Eldar), Ali Williams (Tyrannids) and Tony "Toad" Burgess (Chaos Marines). Unfortunately for Da Squigs the event proved to be "Not A Good One" as they won the Wooden Spoons for finishing last but special mentions go to Alex and Andy T for achieving very respectable individual

O.k. So we got the Wooden Spoon but at least there was One For All scores within Da Squigs, special mentions also go to Michael and Tim H who although are Gobstyks members went to different teams to even out the numbers that were short and did well for the teams they played for, Also special thanks go to Pete D, Will P, Chrissy, Kelly, Tom contributed in some way shape or form and all the others who without their dedication and effort made the event special.

H who

The Overall Winners of the event were The War Vets who Beat S Club Juniors and Waaagh! Spikey

Changes to the Web site

El President Will P has been making some weird and unusual changes to the club web site (www.gobstyks.co.uk) these include a section on the 3 Bloodbowl competitions that are currently running along with Team Photographs of all the teams that take part within the 3 competitions also some of the members information has been updated also recently added to the site is a terrain.

Have your Say

Do you think you have an interesting article that you would like to see in the newsletter then please feel free to e-mail me with your suggestion and I'll try to fit it in, it could be a report about a recently released book, how you have converted a model, something your unsure about or an opinion on something that has happened or you want doing at the club as long as it's relevant and isn't too long (about 60 words) and doesn't insult, accuse or slander anybody then what you want to write about is entirely up to you.

Role-players Room

Most of the Role-players action over the past few weeks has been focused in and around the worlds and alien races of Star Wars and in the world of battling vampire clans in Vampire the Masquerade and if they do happen to have any funny moments in any of their sessions then hopefully I'll be able to report of a few events in next and subsequent months Newsletters.

Army of the Month

Tony "Toad" Burgess' Exodite Eldar Army is roughly designed around the basis that the Warhammer Fantasy races of High Elves and Dark Elves evolved to become the races we know in Warhammer 40,000 as the Eldar and Dark Eldar respectively, so tad asked the Question How did the Wood Elves fit in the grand scheme of things, well Toad has also answered the question with a very nice looking army creating some specially designed units like the unit pictured (Left) and vehicles to add flavour and a unique edge to his own "Wood" Eldar race.

Model of the Month

Model of the month actually sees 16 models under the spotlight as Phil Croft's Dark Elf Bloodbowl Team Chill-sea caught my eye to be model of the month as they beat my Night Goblin team 5-0 in a recent match. Phil created the team using a box of Warhammer 40,000 Dark Eldar Warriors plastic box set along with some of the Dark Elf Fantasy models to create a truly unique and very evil looking team with each different type of player distinguished in one way or another yet doesn't make the model look out of place within the rest of the team, a mention also goes to Tim P as Tim has also done the same thing to create a Skaven Team using the Skaven Plastic box set instead of buying the metal Bloodbowl models.

Moiventus Seal K. O Kup Victory 2-1

After Intense K. O Kup action Neil Nickson's Minotaurs of Moiventus Chewin lift the K. O Kup Trophy after beating the Wood Elves of Ali Williams' Loren Losers in a fast paced, closely contested and fairly even match with a reasonable of casualties, play of the match was the constant handling of the Loren Wardancer by a mutated Minotaur with his tentacle, this is the first trophy of a possibly successful double winning season as they are hotly contesting for the Division 1.

Bloodbowl News

In the Gobstykup Competition Chill-sea (Phill C) and The Mavericks (Will P) lead the way as both Team have over 100 Match points, In the League, The 1st Division Title looks very close at the moment The Mavericks (Will P) lead Moiventus (Neil N) slightly whilst Rite Onrable OMF (Kelly) are looking favourites to be relegated, Division 2 sees the title go to the final game between Triangular Bandage (Tim H) and Badland Raiders (Will M) for promotion, Mini-sota T'Wolves (Andy D) have been relegated after not winning a single game, 3rd Division looks to be won by Hashut's Avengers (Phil C) and Middenheim Marauders (Dickon) look set to play in the 4th Division next season, 4th Division honours have been awarded to the Ratarsed Revellers (Gareth H) with a %100 record were as Slackburn Loafers (Ali) who are at the foot of the table see Non-League Football beckon.

NEW League to be set up

Gareth H is set to redo the leagues and only allowing brand new league only teams in to the set-up

Member Of The Month

Member of the Month is the Head Coach of the Victorious an inaugural winners of the K.O Kup Moiventus Chewin Neil "Moovey" Nickson.

You will more than often see or should I say hear Neil shout and cheer MOOOOVAY as his Minotaur Team Moiventus Chewin stomp everyone into the ground in the arena that is Bloodbowl Neil also has Amazon and Lizardman (Aston Godzilla) Bloodbowl teams as well but what is uncommon is that you will sometimes see Neil play fantasy with his Dwarves or use is Dark Elves which possess a very nicely converted Noble on Cold One.

Good Luck!!!

Good Luck To Andy T and Gareth H for the GW Fantasy GT later this month.

Campaigns Coming Soon

Tim P has written up some rules for a possible 40K campaign whereas Gareth is planning to do a Fantasy campaign based on the recent campaign featured in the past few months issues of White Dwarf, if you are interested in any of these forthcoming campaigns then please feel free to speak to the relevant person to show your interest the sooner the interest is there the sooner the campaigning can begin.
